IN THE HIGH COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

Current No. 716 of 27-28, dated the 7th April 1936.

Subject.—

Amendment of Rule 98 of Order XXI of the first schedule of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911.

The following amendment which the High Court proposes to make, in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 122 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911, to the said rule, is published, as required by the said section, for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby, and notice is hereby given that the said amendment will be taken up for consideration by the High Court on or after the 15th June 1936. Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the proposed amendment before the said date will be considered by the High Court.

Proposed Amendment.

Add the words "or on his behalf" after the words "at his instigation" at the two places occurring in Rule 98 of Order XXI of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911.

The rule after amendment will read thus :—

"Where the Court is satisfied that the resistance or obstruction was occasioned without any just cause by the judgment-debtor or by some other person at his instigation or on his behalf, it shall direct that the applicant be put into possession of the property, and where the applicant is still resisted or obstructed in obtaining possession, the Court may also, at the instance of the applicant, order the judgment-debtor, or any person acting at his instigation or on his behalf to be detained in the civil prison for a term which may extend to thirty days."

Current No. 85 of 35-36, dated the 7th April 1936.

Subject—

Amendment of Rule 5 (1) of Order IX of the Code of Civil Procedure :—

The following amendment which the High Court proposes to make, in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 122 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911, to the said rule, is published, as required by the said section, for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby, and notice is hereby given that the said amendment will be taken up for consideration by the High Court on or after the 15th June 1936. Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the proposed amendment before the said date will be considered by the High Court.
